1 WEBSITE IDEA

The following is a non-profit tattoo pallor idea, this initiative is set in place too help aspiring artists in the poor communities who do not have outlets to help them improve in their dreams when it comes to art and their way of expressing themselves through the media.

Why you chose the idea

As an aspiring artist who is still wants to reach the pinnacle of art and using it as a form of expression, that's very close to home. We never got opportunities from external outlets, organisations so by providing what I didn't have I hope that more youths will grasp the opportunity and make the best of it.
